

Last summer my husband and i was on our way home from Florida and if hadnt been for xm radio we would never had known about a storm that was heading our way, we made our way up the coast with the help of xm radio. We love our xm radio, it is always on in our car.